This is the daily journal of a German soldier on the Eastern Front. It was published shortly after World War II. I found it very fascinating about what the German soldiers went through and how they reacted to a German soldiers life.

The life is not embellished and the author simply told what went on during battles and the daily life.

Overall then, this is an excellent book that does just about everything I could hope for in a book of its kind. If you want to know what the war was like for a German soldier on the Eastern front from late '42 onwards, this book is an excellent choice. Highly recommended.
