The Face of Another Abe Kobo Complete Review

The Face of Another is very introspective novel, as the narrator constantly has to face what his loss of face means: I can hardly believe that the face is so important to a man's existence. A man's worth should be gauged by the content of his work; possibly the convolutions of the surface of the brain have something to do with it, but his face certainly does not.

The Face of Another ebook by Kobo Abe Rakuten Kobo

The Face of Another, is a book that may take a bit to get into, as it is written in a more personal account, as though you are in the very mind of the character himself. But I found once I was, I was wholly interested by what is going to come of the main character. A definite must read in my opinion.
